

Researching Language in the City: exploring methodological and theoretical concepts.

June 2-3, 2017

Highfield House Hotel, Southampton

Programme

Friday 2nd June

	Refreshments on arrival
14:00 – 14:30	Overview of MEITS project (Janice Carruthers) Introduction to theme and issues (Clare Mar-Molinero)
14:30 – 15:30	Researching Language in the City: exploring methodological and theoretical concepts (James Simpson and Jessica Bradley, AHRC Tlang project)
15:30 – 16:15	Positioning, stance and style in comments from young people on local linguistic practices in urban spaces (Luxembourg) (John Bellamy, MEITS project)
16:15 – 16:30	Tea/Coffee
16:30 – 17:30	Moving Stories: Writing Berlin Lives (Patrick Stevenson, University of Southampton)
17:30 – 18.15	How is city speech perceived? Placing Contemporary Urban Vernacular French speech in a wider francophone community (Daniel Macauley, MEITS project)
18:15 – 18:45	Discussion (discussant: Dick Vigers)
19.30	Dinner at Ceno's restaurant

Saturday 3rd June

09:00 – 10:00	Multilingual Manchester – Engaging with the city-region’s language diversity (Leonie Gaiser, OWRI Cross-Language Dynamics project, University of Manchester)
10:00 – 11:00	Researching Spanish in the Global City (Andrew Lynch, University of Miami)
11:00 – 11:15	Coffee/tea
11:15 – 12:00	Whose city is it anyway? ‘Making presence’ in Hispanic London (Darren Paffey, University of Southampton)
12:00 – 12:45	Language and Transgenerational Identity in Chile’s Italian Community: Methodological and Theoretical Reflections (Naomi Wells, OWRI Cross-Language Dynamics project)
12:45 – 13:15	Discussion (Discussant: Adriana Patiño) Concluding remarks (CMM)
13:15	Lunch